

2011 PICNIC

COME ONE, COME ALL!

We are excited to announce the upcoming annual picnic at the home of Anne and Tim Kerr on 17 September 2011, in Castleton, Virginia. The picnic starts at 12 noon - rain or shine! Please bring a side dish and whatever you want to drink. The Kerrs will provide the venue and meats.

If you missed the all-school/all-classes invited reunion last summer in Washington, DC, this picnic is a good time to catch up with your classmates, friends, and faculty.

For further picnic information, address, and directions, please contact: Anne Kerr

Looking forward to seeing you there!
