K C Gray Siebert Heartfelt feelings for a grand woman.

Mary Williamson The occasion is so sad, but I love that they are having this Remembrance for Ms. Sen. She will always be loved forever by AES and friends, too.

Mia Drake Inderbitzin I'm so glad I was able to spend some time with her back in 2010. This is so sad.

Akash Premsen Thank you Mary Williamson. Much appreciated.

Cherry Sein Rest in Peace Ms. Sen.. You were my librarian from 1991 to 2006...

Krista Pohli Rose Ms. Sen was an awesome lady and librarian. She was also my summer time supervisor. We inventoried the entire AES library in 1976. Over 20,000 books at that time. I've loved libraries ever since! Thank you Bandana!

Steven Walker Bandana Sen was awesome. I am lucky to have known her and worked with her and laughed with her ❤️<3

Aloka N. Dalal With grace and compassion she guided us through our adolescent trials making us better adults and human beings. Her touch on my life is indelible as is her smile in my collection of magnificent memories. You were and always be our beautiful B Sen.

Shampa Saira Bari I am so sad to be missing this...

Elizabeth Jones There in spirit. My condolences

Justin Smith Here's to a life well lived and a great educator.

Gretchen Metzner Jackson She was an amazing person and was always there to console and help myself and my sister Andrea during some tough times.

Toshi Ikeshima When I visited AES in 2005, 26 years after graduation, Ms. Sen was one of the very few faculty members still around, and she kindly took me around the tour of the school. Thank you Ms. Sena. You will always be remembered.

Peggy Sood Akash, this announcement reflects all the elegance, confidence, purpose, style and composure that your mother embodied. We were privileged to know her and see some of life through her eyes and spirit. My condolences to you, Himani and the girls.

Debbie Flanagan My mother Faye Flanagan, was a volunteer at the AES Library with Mrs. Sen during my formative high school years. Many parents volunteered their time for a couple of reasons: a love of books, their spirit of community and their love and respect for Mrs. Sen. As a student, I could always count on Mrs. Sen to lead me in the right direction when it came to research or my inquisitive nature. Thank you Mrs. Sen for being the light, a lover of books and your endless dedication to the many students and former students that considered AIS/AES their home away from home. You will be missed. ❤️🖤☐

Jessica Mitchell Such incredibly sad news. My heart felt condolences to Mrs Sen's family. She was such a lovely lady filled with so much kindness. I will never forget her during my time at AES (class of 1997).

Terry Jones I remember being the new kid in school and going to the library for escape. For all my years at AES Mrs. Sen challenged me with books. Recommending or holding aside books she knew I could read and would enjoy. Because of her I have a love of the classics and a love of all genres of books, not just one or two. She helped me open my eyes and heart thru her love of books which she passed onto me. An adventure was always awaiting me when I walked into the library and she gave me new books to read.

Forever in her debt for a love of reading & knowledge that has taken me far in this world we live in.

Sanjeev Handa When I arrived at AES in 1977, it was just after some sort of political noise and most Indian kids weren't allowed to attend the school. That's when the school went from AIS to AES. I was able to attend because my parents were American citizens. In any event, I remember Mrs. Sen and Mr. Gupta (the math teacher) paying a little extra attention to this new kid named Sanjeev. I will not forget that or them.

Andrea Metzner Moore Yes she did
She was a beautiful soul!

Ilse Veenbaas I love the quote so true to ms bandana! sending thanks for wonderful memories!

Kanwal Golaknath Mrs. Sood there were so many warm and touching tributes paid to Bandana, last evening. Vivek captured her spirit of fun and adventure and love and caring and zest for life so beautifully. What an amazing woman! AES-ERS were there, in quite a big way. It would have made you happy to see how many people who knew her from her early days at AES and those who came much later were all there to pay their respects to a person who was so unique in so many ways,

Peggy Sood Thank you Mrs Golaknath...I was there in spirit.

Marilyn Fuller Erwin Bandana was such a memorable part of AES. She recognized and nurtured my daughters' love of reading., challenging them with new books and ideas. Our deepest condolences to her family and friends.

Ashok Nimgade the end of an era... I feel like I grew up in her presence, from a 3rd grader to later in adult life (seeing her at the AIS reunions). She was like a pillar for us, and will be missed deeply by the AIS/AES community.

Marilyn Shafer Oh, my, sorry to know. Thank you for posting.

Anne-Marie van der Steen-Richter My sincere condolences
