AIS/AES Alumni Association, Inc.
June 2010 Newsletter

Something Old. Something New.

AIS/AES 2010 REUNION – July 4, 2010 Weekend
ALL SCHOOL YEARS/ALL CLASSES INVITED!

Were you in Delhi when the school was called the American School and it was housed in the old Taj Barracks? If not, maybe you remember being on a field trip and when the bus passed the Barracks someone shouting out, "There is the old school!"

The picture above is the American School at the Taj Barracks. The school was later named the American International School and later, the American Embassy School. Originally, the Barracks accommodated U.S. soldiers during World War II who were healing from their wounds or on R&R.

We now have alumni representing 26 class years and several faculty members coming to our reunion. That's a lot of people with a lot of memories and old and new stories!

Some of the folks coming to this reunion have been with us at past reunions. For others, this is the first time for seeing old friends since Delhi and for meeting alumni from generations before and after "their time." One thing we have in common: we all shared an important part of our lives with wonderful people at this wonderful school.

Your reunion committee and many alumni, faculty and friends of AIS/AES have been working hard to bring you a special reunion. Included in the plans are some of our cherished past reunion traditions and some new delightful surprises. We hope to make this an enjoyable reunion weekend for everyone!

Please join us. Come for the party! Stay for the Fireworks!

Event Information (For events outside of the hotel)

Reserve Your Spot Now!

There are a limited number of guests for each of the events outside of the hotel due to the host's restrictions (for instance, the Gandhi Memorial Center and Indian Embassy) or number of tour guides available. We encourage guests who know which events they would like to attend to pre-reserve now to make sure they can get a spot. There will be information on events that still have openings (and spots opening due to cancellations) at the AIS/AES Reunion Registration Desk and you may also sign up then, as long as there are vacancies.

If you sign up for an event, but change your mind later, please let us know so we can offer your reservation to another guest!

To pre-register for these events, visit RegOnline (see page 7 for instructions). You may sign yourself and/or your guest/s using RegOnline. If you have any questions or problems using RegOnline or about the events, or later wish to cancel your event reservation, please contact Sophie Lafaille at sophie.lafaille@gmail.com.

Traveling D.C. by Metro

Many of the reunion events which take place outside of the hotel are easily reached by the Metro (subway) system. To get to the Crystal City Metro stop, just take a short 5-minute walk down the tunnel located to the left of the hotel registration desk and follow the signs. Both the Blue and Yellow Metro lines run through the Crystal City stop. For information about fares, time tables and navigating the D.C./MD/VA Metro system, visit <http://www.wmata.com>.

Saturday Night Auction & Raffle

In our last newsletter, we told you about a very generous offer from Bea & Win Sargent to auction a 5-day vacation in their tropical paradise beach B&B on the lovely island of Tobago.

A number of other alumni and friends have also offered some fun and interesting adventures and items for the auction and raffle, which will both be held during our Mela on Saturday night. Below is a little information about another two more auction items, to pique your curiosity! We will have a table at the Vendor Fair on Friday and Saturday with more information about all of the auction and raffle items.

You may want to bring your checkbooks (or cash) just in case something catches your eye or you are in the mood for another vacation. It's important to note that all proceeds from the auction and the raffle will go to fund alumni events. The money goes right back to benefit you and our AIS/AES family.

Four Days on an Island in Maine Deer Isle Adventure

Donated by Scott Morgan, AIS '69

An unusual and fun vacation on an island in Maine.....
really far, far away!

Four nights lodging in an old Airstream (sleeps 3 – 4 people) on Deer Isle, Maine.

This package vacation includes two home made lobster dinners and use of the Morgan family's bikes and kayaks. The lucky winner will get four nights free (and can pay $100/night for any nights after that). Visitors can take local tours of secret spots, art galleries, lobster shacks, coves and more. Full details will be available at the reunion.

Original Cecile & Jeanne (Paris) – Necklace and Bracelet

Donated by Amanda Weathersby, AIS '72

Amanda Weathersby has graciously donated several pieces of fine jewelry for the auction on Saturday night. Featured here is a lovely Cecile & Jeanne necklace with birds and flowers and matching bracelet. Both are with pearls and gold dipped, and made in France.

For information on the designers of this beautiful jewelry, visit their website at <http://cecilejeannesf.org/about.html>

Looking for Raffle & Auction Donations

Do you have an item or something interesting that can be presented as a raffle or auction item at the reunion?

If so, please contact Anne Weathersby at aweathersby@erols.com

Indian Cooking Class

Donated by Rupen Rao, AIS/AES Friend

Chef Rupen Rao is donating a 3 – 4 hour Indian cooking class, on a week-day, for 6 people (that's you and 5 of your friends). Learn more about this cooking class at the reunion and get together with some of your friends to bid on it! Chef Rupen will travel to your home to teach you and your friends simple Indian cooking. For more information on Rupen Rao, visit <http://www.RupenRao.com>

Reunion Details – It's not too late to come to the reunion!

Questions?

If you have questions about registration, leave your registration incomplete and contact Sophie Lafaille (sophie.lafaille@gmail.com). The online registration system will remember the information you entered so you can return to your registration form, as long as you remember the password you used to start signing up.

RegOnline Registration Site - Instructions

Before you start, have your Pay Pal account (preferable) or credit card (Master Card or VISA) information ready. If you choose to use Pay Pal and do not have an account yet, please sign up at <https://www.paypal.com> several days in advance, so Pay Pal can approve your account.

Web Browser

RegOnline does not always work with AOL. For our AOL users: To ensure your registration is completed and accepted, we suggest you use Internet Explorer, Firefox, or Google Chrome to access RegOnline.

Registration Site

https://www.regonline.com/aisaes_reunion_2010

Registration Steps

1. Please register yourself (alumni or faculty member) first. The cost for the alumni or faculty member includes both the registration fee (to cover class dues and administrative costs) and your event fee. Do not exit the program if you are adding additional guests on your bill.
2. After you have registered yourself, you will have the opportunity to add guests and children using the Add Another Person button. You will register each guest/family member one at a time.
3. Continue going back to the Add Another Person for each person you register. By registering in this fashion, you can register yourself and your entire group on one bill.
 - Tip: The program will ask you for an email address and password for each person you register. You may continue using your own email address and password for all people you are registering.
4. Before checking out, be sure you included all guests.
5. You will receive an email confirmation for each person you register. Also, you may set the system to provide you with reminder emails (as if you could forget!) before the reunion.
6. If you want to add more guests to your registration, you may go back later to add them to your account.

Signing Up for Events Outside Hotel

1. Go to https://www.regonline.com/aisaes_reunion_2010.
2. Use your email and password you used to register for the reunion. If you can't remember your password, email sophie.lafaille@gmail.com.
3. Go to the Agenda page in the registration
4. Select the events you want to attend. You cannot sign up for overlapping events. You will be able to add the other guests you registered also if you registered as a group (e.g., you and your spouse). You will not be able to register other people that were not included in your original registration.
5. All events have a maximum number of attendees. If the event is full, you will be notified that you will not be able to sign up.
6. Please only sign up for events that you know you will be able to attend, as we have a limited number of spots for each event and there may be others who want to go also!
7. If for any reason you are unable to attend an event that you have signed up for, we would appreciate if you could notify Sophie Lafaille (sophie.lafaille@gmail.com) as soon as possible.

Making Hotel Reservations

Need to make hotel reservations for the Reunion Weekend?

Our venue for the 2010 is the Crystal Gateway Marriott Hotel in Crystal City, VA, which is located across the river from Washington D.C.

The deadline for making reservations for a hotel room at the hotel and getting the special price was June 4, however as we post this newsletter they still had about 30 rooms left in our reserved block, although the price will now be their standard going price on the day you make reservations.

You may make reservations by calling:

1-800-266-9432

Provide our event name (AIS/AES Alumni Reunion), to see if there are any rooms left in our block.

The hotel offers free shuttle service to the Reagan National Airport, which is conveniently located nearby. Parking is also available at an additional cost. The Crystal City Metro stop is easily accessible (a short walk through the lobby) for those of you planning to attend the July 4 festivities in D.C.

Don't Confuse Your Marriott Hotels!

There are two Marriott hotels in Crystal City. Make sure you choose the Crystal Gateway Marriott at 1700 Jefferson Davis Highway, or you may be going to someone else's party!

Volunteers, Vendors, Photos, Auction & Raffle Items

The outpouring of emails from all of you who want to contribute by volunteering your time or talents, or donating an item for the raffle or auction or to help in even the smallest way has been tremendous.

To those of us who have been discussing and planning the details for the 2010 Reunion for the last five years, we realize that the energy and interest that has come from you in these last few months before the reunion is really what is going to make this reunion fun and interesting!

That said, the doors are still open for anyone who wants to come be a vendor, or to join us as a volunteer or even if you have photos that you haven't sent in yet and are just scanning now. Even if your photos are not used for the slide show, they are always welcome (and we want to see them!). We can use them on our website, or to be shared in a different form and fashion – to be determined in the future.

Volunteers

Sophie Lafaille (sophie.lafaille@gmail.com) is our Volunteers Coordinator. If you would like to help at the registration desk, with decorations, or help alumni navigate the Metro on the way to our planned events (it's easy, but some people are more comfortable if they know someone else knows the way!) or to help with other assorted tasks, please contact Sophie.

Vendors

Wrote a book? Cut a musical CD? Trying to get your business off the ground and want to introduce it to your AIS/AES friends? Check with Anne Weathersby at aweathersby@erols.com (for information on setting up a table for the Friday and/or Saturday afternoon Vendor Fair.

Photos

Our web master and one of our AIS photographers, Tim Brown is finishing up a fantastic slide show which includes many, many photos you have never seen before. If you are just now getting around to scanning your photos, they are still welcome. Even if they don't make the slide show, there is great interest in seeing them and we will feature them on our website later.

If you have photos from your days in Delhi, or from past reunions or from return visits to the school, please email them to Tim at (browntjl@comcast.net)

Auction & Raffle Items

Your AIS swim trunks. Your Taj Times collection. Autographed copy of your novel. A nice piece of art (either yours or done by someone else). Little items. Big items. Any and all items that will remind us of Delhi and school days. Or fun items that you think our crowd will enjoy!

The auction and raffle which will be held on Saturday night is part entertainment, part fund raiser, and definitely an opportunity for you to take something home after the reunion (either an item or an experience to enjoy later). Cash and checks are accepted.

Again, all proceeds go back to alumni and to our AIS/AES family. If you have anything you can bring with you to the reunion or want to send ahead of time, please contact Anne Weathersby at aweathersby@erols.com.

This is Your Reunion!

Again, many thanks to all who have contacted us already and who are pitching in to make this a fun and exciting reunion. We truly appreciate your generosity and can't wait to see you soon!

Come for the Party! Stay for the Fireworks!
